

Alayna Brown, Resident Coordinator – IBCP

Alayna Brown joined the CIEE staff in December of 2005. Born in Wisconsin, Alayna attended the University of Wisconsin –Madison and received a bachelor's degree in Psychology. Alayna is also a past CIEE program participant. While studying in Seville in the Liberal Arts Program in 2001, she quickly became friends with her CIEE intercambio who are now husband and wife. In 2005, Alayna moved back to Seville and began working with the ALA program, as well LA. In fall 2007, she was promoted to Resident Coordinator of the International Business and Culture Program (IBCP) at Universidad Pablo de Olavide. Alayna is currently co-teaching the IBCP core class Intercultural Communication, with the CIEE Seminar in Living and Learning integrated into its curriculum and will be pursuing graduate studies in International Education in the fall.