

Carmen Gragera, Assistant Center Director and Registrar.

Carmen Gragera became a part of the Seville CIEE staff in the fall of 1989. She was born in Badajoz and came to live in Seville when she was eleven years old.

After four years of studying English, she received her degree from the “Instituto de Idiomas” at the University of Seville. Before she joined the CIEE program, Carmen worked as the Resident Director for CUNY (City University of New York), Wells College (Aurora, NY) and Sweet Briar College (Virginia). Also to understand better the US educational system, Carmen has spent a few months working at different American Universities. The last occasion was an official campus visit to Brandeis University during the summer 2008. It was a very important Cross-cultural learning opportunity, particularly with regards to work methods in the US.

In addition to be the Assistant Centre Director and Registrar of CIEE Seville, Carmen is also the Coordinator for academic issues and policies among Seville program.

Carmen is considered an important asset to the CIEE team.
