

Carolina Cisneros, Program Assistant – Liberal Arts

Carolina Cisneros joined the CIEE Seville staff in spring of 2004 working as receptionist, later becoming an academic assistant to the Liberal Arts program in the fall of 2005. She has been always fascinated with the English language and culture so she studied her degree in English Grammar and Literature at the University of Seville. She has also worked for the Study Abroad office in the International Studies department at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She is a native of Seville, a city she is in love with, and where she has lived her whole life. She enjoys talking to the students and advising them about the everyday Spanish cultural life.
