

Helena Andrés, Teach in Spain Coordinator

Helena Andrés Peña is the current Teach in Spain Coordinator, she is a local Sevillana who has been working for CIEE since 2003. She started working as a guide for Study abroad students when she finished her degree in English Language and Literature.

Then, she joined the CIEE Seville staff as a receptionist in Spring 2007, and two years later, in Spring 2009, as an Advanced Liberal Arts Program Assistant. Since Summer 2009, she loves being a host of her Andalusian region for those who come to enjoy teaching their American language and culture. Helena is more than pleased to learn different cultures and teach her own
