

Jorge Rodríguez,
Coordinator – Language and Culture Program
Program Assistant – Liberal Arts Program

Jorge Rodríguez was born in the charming city of Seville, where he was raised, studied and obtained his degree for 'English teacher'. Jorge started working for CIEE in September 2004 as a student guide during orientation. Since then he has been doing minor jobs for CIEE, until he began working in an administration position. Now he works as a program assistant for the Liberal Arts program. He also has a co-leadership for the LC summer program. Jorge loves his city and its soccer team Sevilla FC! He enjoys making the students feel like they are at home. Jorge has participated in a staff exchange with the University of Oregon.
