

Luisa Rodríguez, Resident Coordinator- Language and Society Program

Luisa Rodríguez was born and lives in Utrera, one of the many nearby towns in the province of Seville. Eleven years ago, after studying Business Administration, she began working with CIEE. She began as assistant program director for the Language and Society program. Currently she is the Resident Director of this same program, a position which she has occupied for four years. Starting the summer of 2006, she is also Resident Coordinator of our July Language and Culture program. She enjoys her work, especially the one-on-one relationships developed with the students and the opportunities and experiences that this job provides.
