

Olga Merino, Resident Coordinator- Liberal Arts

Olga Merino joined the Seville CIEE staff in spring 2002. Her background includes an undergraduate degree in English Language and Literature from the Universidad de Sevilla as well as work experience in the fields of Education, Sales and Marketing. Olga was born and raised in Sevilla, where she lives and works, although she spent a year abroad while in University. Olga started her career in CIEE as an Assistant to the Director of the Business and Society and Summer Programs. In spring 2005 she was promoted to the position of Resident Coordinator of the International Business and Language Program (IBLP) at Universidad Pablo de Olavide and the Second Session of the Summer Language and Culture Program. She's the Resident Coordinator of the Liberal Arts program since Fall 2007. In addition, Olga has been teaching the CIEE Seminar on Living and Learning abroad since Fall 2008, for which she has been trained both by CIEE and the Summer Institute for Intercultural Communication in Portland, Oregon. Since Olga joined the CIEE team in 2002, every semester she has worked with the same enthusiasm and interest as if it were her first day.
