

Salvador Parra, Administrative Director

Salvador Parra is a “cañaila” from San Fernando (a beach town in the province of Cádiz and according to Salva possibly the best town in the whole world.) He came to Seville for his studies and earned his Geography and History degree from the University of Seville; he decided to stay and has lived here ever since. He did various jobs, most of which had to do with teaching before starting to work at CIEE in 1999. At the Seville centre, he has had many positions, but now after having finished his MBA, he is in charge of the centre’s administration. He is known to be very sociable, friendly, and open, and you will surely have the opportunity to enjoy his “gaditano” sense of humour during your stay with us.
