

Sara Herald, teach in Spain coordinator

Sara started working for CIEE in June of 2007. Born in Virginia and raised in various places along the East Coast, she first came to Seville as a CIEE student for the 2004-5 school year. After graduating from Georgetown University in 2006 with a degree in Spanish and English, she moved to Spain to teach English with a government grant. Sara loves playing basketball, reading, and escaping to the beach on weekends.
