

News from Seville International Business and Culture Program November 5-11, 2007

Después del "puentazo" que hemos tenido y vivido, volvemos a la realidad. En esta semana tenéis actividades deportivas para mover el esqueleto, visitas culturales muy interesantes y atractivas y, terminando la semana, unas visitas a varios de los lugares mas bonitos y simbólicos de toda Andalucía.
¡Esperamos que disfrutéis!

APUNE Creative Writing Contest

APUNE, the Association of North American Study Abroad Program in Spain, is holding a student Creative Writing Contest...write a poem, tell a story about your experience here in Seville that has had a specific impact on you since your arrival. Add a title to your poem or story. Judging will be based on correct grammar use, creativity and originality of expression and thought. If interested, you will need to send an e-mail to coordinador@apune.org with the following information: Pseudonym, Title of work, First and last name, telephone number, e-mail and name of program where you're studying. In a second e-mail, send your creative writing work. In the document, you should include the title and pseudonym of author. You have until November 25th to get writing! Maximum of 750 words. The winner will receive 125€.

Do you have a photo that symbolizes or captures a particular aspect of your Spanish experience? APUNE is also holding a photo contest. Photos will be judged on their creativity and expression. Photos should be sent in JPG and have a minimum resolution of 300 megapixels. The winner of the contest will receive 50€. Send your photo (with title) to Concurso Creativo de APUNE (coordinador@apune.org). Follow the same e-mail format as for the creative writing contest. Visit: www.apune.org

Show off your creative talents in the CIEE Thanksgiving Dinner

Thursday, November 22nd CIEE will be hosting a Thanksgiving Dinner for all CIEE students, professors and staff. In order to make the event even more successful and add to the camaraderie, we'd like you to participate! Would you like to say a few words about your time in Spain, recite a poem, show off your musical talents by singing or playing the guitar? We know you all have talent so don't be afraid to show it off! Talk with Alayna if interested.
