

This week marks the end of the summer programs. Just a short time ago you were arriving at the hotel, unsure of what experiences lay ahead. Now you all know how to get around the city, where to eat tapas, and where to go at night to have fun. Most importantly, your Spanish has improved and you've learned things about Spanish literature, history, culture, and human rights. We hope that you've truly enjoyed your time in Seville; we have enjoyed getting to know all of you. Make the most of your last week here and have safe trips home!

José Viñas and Sara Herald, Activities Coordinators

This Tuesday, join Sara for the last games of basketball (7-8 pm) and volleyball (8-9 pm) of the summer. Head to Polideportivo IFNI via buses #34 or #6. Invite your intercambio!

Visita a Museo de Bellas Artes

This Wednesday, July 19, join the CIEE guide for a tour of Seville's art museum. Housed in a former convent, the museum was founded in 1839. Works in the museum focus on two main schools: baroque and romantic. You'll find paintings by Murillo, Zurbarán, and Valdés Leal, as well as sculptures by Martínez Montañés and Juan de Mesa. The exposition this summer features works of art from the Museo de Capodimonte, including works by Rafael, Titian, El Greco, and Van Dyck. Ask your host for a bocadillo to eat after class and meet the guide in the Palacio at 1:30pm.

Free Concert

This Wednesday at 9:30 pm the band Karma-2 will perform Spanish pop hits here in the Palacio. Come and listen to the songs that have dominated the Spanish airwaves from the 1980's to today. Invite your intercambio!

Goodbye Party

Come say goodbye to your friends, professors, and CIEE staff members on Friday, July 21 at 9:00 pm in the Palacio. There will be food, drinks, and fun.

Tell Us Your Story!

As the summer programs come to a close, we are very interested in hearing about your various adventures in Seville. Moreover, we'd like to know about a specific event or experience that you feel exemplifies your study program in Spain. If you have a good study abroad story to tell, write it down (in 500 words or less, please) and you might just be the winner of a cash prize. The best "Tell Us Your Story" story will receive: 100€. Good luck! The deadline to turn in your story is Thursday, July 20 at 2pm. With your story, you need to include a completed release form (see your email or ask John). Submission must be made by e-mail to jluria@ciee.org.
