

Terms and Conditions

CIEE Program Assurance Advantage – Study Abroad

1. All CIEE “Confirmed” participants (hereafter a “Participant” or “Participants”) of all summer 2021, fall 2021 and spring 2022 study abroad and internship programs are covered by CIEE’s Program Assurance Advantage. Virtual internships, College Away and January 2022 programs are not eligible.
2. A “participant” is defined as the natural person who has applied to a CIEE Study Abroad or internship program that has been approved by their educational institution; has been accepted (or conditionally accepted) into CIEE’s Study Abroad or internship program (if necessary); has signed a CIEE Participant Contract and has paid their CIEE Confirmation Fee for participation.
3. Students participating on any summer 2021, fall 2021 and spring 2022 study abroad and internship programs are entitled to the following:
  - The option to change participation in a study abroad or internship program to an equivalent program in a new location for no additional cost (subject to availability). “Equivalent program” is defined as one with similar program costs, duration, and/or term.
    - Note all awarded and accepted CIEE scholarship funds are transferable to a student’s new program but may not exceed the scholarship “cap” for the new term
  - The option to defer confirmed participation in a study abroad or internship program to another equivalent CIEE term for no additional cost. “Equivalent term” is defined as one in similar duration (i.e. – summer 4-week or 8-week session; spring/fall 6-week block or semester program; January 3- week session). Students wishing to switch to a longer term may opt to pay the difference in program fee. Students wishing to switch to a shorter term will be refunded the difference in Program Fee.
  - A full refund of CIEE’s Program Fee (Educational Costs + Housing + Insurance), as well as your Confirmation Fee*, and Insurance, if:
    - The participant decides to withdraw from the Study Abroad or internship application before a program’s published start date OR
    - CIEE cancels or suspends the participant’s program at any point prior to the program’s published start date.
    - Other fees including (but not limited to) visa fees, insurance(s), School of Record and/ or transportation related expenses (eg - airfare) not included in the CIEE Program Fee etc. are not eligible for reimbursement.
4. Participants must make regular and on time payments to be eligible for the CIEE Program Assurance Advantage benefit. This benefit has no additional cost to the student’s total fees and no monetary value.
5. Any student who is unable to arrive on program due to denied boarding or entry either from their airline, transiting country or host country because they lack required Covid-19 vaccinations or testing; cannot show required, documented proof of vaccination and/or testing; are not considered “full vaccinated” defined as by the airline or transiting/host country are subject to standard program cancellation and cannot apply for refund protection under CIEE Program Assurance Advantage.
6. Participants agree to abide by the Terms and Conditions of the CIEE Program Assurance Advantage and by the decisions of CIEE, which are final.

Please view High School Summer, High School Semester, GAP, and Teach websites for respective Program Assurance Advantage Terms and Conditions

CIEE, Inc.
July 12, 2021