CIEE Program Assurance Advantage – Global Navigator High School Study Abroad Programs

1. All CIEE “Confirmed” participants (hereafter a “Participant” or “Participants”) of all fall 2021, spring 2021 and summer 2022 Global Navigator High School Study Abroad programs are covered by CIEE’s Program Assurance Advantage.
2. A “participant” is defined as the natural person who has applied to a CIEE High School Summer/Trimester/Semester/Year program, or Gap Semester/Year program; has been accepted (or conditionally accepted); has signed (or parent/guardian has signed) the CIEE Terms and Conditions and has paid their CIEE Confirmation Fee for participation.
3. Participants on any fall 2021, spring 2021 and summer 2022 Global Navigator High School Study Abroad Program are entitled to the following if CIEE cancels the program prior to departure:
 - The option to change participation to a different Global Navigator High School or Gap Study Abroad program in a new location (subject to eligibility requirements and availability) for the same term:
 - If there is a price difference between the original program and new program: for a lower tuition cost, CIEE will refund the difference; for a higher tuition cost, CIEE will charge the additional amount
 - All awarded and accepted CIEE or Global Navigator scholarship funds can be transferable to a participant’s new program but may be adjusted to equal the same percentage if there is a price difference in the program cost
 - The option of a full refund of CIEE’s Program Fee, as well as your Confirmation Fee.
 - Other fees including (but not limited to) visa fees, insurance(s), or School of Record fees, not included in the CIEE Program Fee etc. are not eligible for reimbursement.
 - *Participants in High School Abroad trimester, semester, or year programs in Australia, Brazil, Denmark, Ireland, Italy, New Zealand, Norway, Sweden, or United Kingdom have additional cancellation terms and fees that will be communicated to each participant and parent(s)/guardian(s) via email
4. If participants on any fall 2021, spring 2021 and summer 2022 Global Navigator High School Study Abroad Program chose to cancel participation on a program CIEE is running, normal cancellation and refund policies applies, as laid out in their program’s terms and conditions.
5. Participants agree to abide by the Terms and Conditions of the CIEE Program Assurance Advantage and by the decision of CIEE, which are final.
